

North American Wetlands Conservation Council Meeting Highlights

July 9-10, 2013

The North American Wetlands Conservation Council (Council) met on July 9-10, 2013 in Ottawa, Canada, to select wetlands conservation projects that will be recommended to the Migratory Bird Conservation Commission (Commission) for funding approval on September 12, 2013.

The total estimated funding (from all funding sources) for Fiscal Year (FY) 2014 is $80,154,864. Of this total, $16,896,000 is available from the BP Macondo oil spill settlement. This funding will be allocated by Council following settlement guidelines. The remaining $63,258,864 is allocated as follows: All Coastal Wetlands Planning, Protection, and Restoration Act funds must be used in United States coastal ecosystems, while all other funds will be allocated 50% to projects in the United States, 45% to projects in Canada, and 5% to projects in Mexico. The estimated country allocations are: United States, $41,387,664 (including $3,000,000 allocated for the Small Grants Program); Canada, $19,684,080; and Mexico, $2,187,120. A portion of the United States funds ($1,800) is derived from fines paid under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act and must be spent within the state of Oklahoma.
